A CAMPAIGN SONG.

Air—Never done anything since.
Mr. Horace Bartine to Washington went,
But he's never done anything since.
To pose as a talker he rested content,
But he's never done anything since.
He cackled and clucked like and old setting hen,
He wiggled and squirmed to keep solid with Ben,
He staid by the gang with the Force Bill, but then,
He's never done anything since.
The campaign for Stewart was hot from the jump,
He's done us considerable since.
To handle his fight he selected a chump,
Who has never made anything since.
And in that campaign some assessments were made,
But some 60 per cent. of the funds, I'm afraid,
In a little old coffin for ever were laid,
And were never seen anywhere since.
Old Enoch Strother, he tried to be Gov.,
But he never tried anything since.
Some of his friends say he's fighting for love,
But we do not believe the pretense.
He's too cold to warm the State Governor's chair;
He wanted the Mint, but the cupboard was bare;
Old Harrison sent him a lock of his hair,
But he's never sent anything since.

WEAVER SPOKE IN PULASKI

And was Cheered by His Hearers.

SUPERIOR JUDGE SANDERSON
DECLARES BOYCOTTING ILLEGAL.

The Trotting Record Knocked Out by a Bicyclist.

Special to the APPEAL

Weaver at Pulaski.

Pulaski, Tenn., Oct. 8.—General Weaver and Mrs. Lease arrived this morning. They were met by 200 farmers who escorted them into town. The Democrats have thirty-five deputies who will attend the meeting to preserve order.

Weaver spoke this afternoon to a large crowd on the public square. His address lasted thirty minutes. General Weaver said: "As God is my judge I never did in Pulaski one single thing that is charged except levying money, and I pronounce the charges unqualified falsehoods. The war is over. I come here on a mission of fraternity. They said I dare not come. I knew I dared come, and I would have come had their threats been a thousand times stronger."

The speaker was loudly cheered. Mrs. Lease then spoke.

Fast Bicycle Time.

Springfield, Mass., Oct. 7.—W. W. Wingle, the bicycle rider, rode a mile this morning with a flying start in 2:02 3-5, beating his own and the world's previous record of 2:04 4-5. The trial was made in a strong wind. Not only did he beat the mile record, but the half mile. The time was 50 4-5.

Yesterday he beat the standing start record making the mile in 2:06 3-5.

Suicide.

San Francisco, Oct. 8.—John Henry Ludwig, a clerk, killed himself today with a revolver in the presence of his family. Poor health and business reverses were the causes.

The Boycott Illegal.

San Francisco, Oct. 8.—Judge Sanderson of the Superior Court, today decided that the boycott was illegal, and was a species of intimidation.

A Consul Sick.

San Francisco, Oct. 8.—Horace G. Platt, the new Russian Consul here, and a prominent lawyer, was taken dangerously ill today.

Rough Weather at the Bay.

San Francisco, Oct. 8.—Terrible wind and rain storm here tonight; the first of the season. No damage has been reported.

Election Bets.

New York, Oct. 8.—Today Billy Edwards bet $5000 even on Harrison and Col. Wm. Brown bet $1000 even on Cleveland.

Poujade Says he Does Not Differ From His Party.

Poujade's idea of Harrison [favoring Harrison as against Weaver for reasons stated] is different from the opinion held by his party which passed * * * resolutions [condemning Eastern Republicans and Harrison's administration for not completely remonetizing silver, and opposing the election of any man not in favor of free and unlimited coinage] in Virginia city on the 30th of last April.—APPEAL Oct. 7th.

The error in the above statement is simple. Those resolutions expressed disapproval of the election of men who are not entirely in accord with the Nevada financial view. They did not disapprove such election so much as to prefer no election at all. That would mean anarchy.

If we disapprove for any reason, we must disapprove more strongly where that reason exists more strongly. If there be reason for disapproving Harrison's election as hurtful to the silver interest, that reason exists much more strongly in the case of Weaver. Therefore, and for the reasons heretofore stated, I favor Harrison, and in that do not differ from my party.

Finally allow me to suggest that differing from one's party is not always a crime, in the free North. If for instance, a party were ruled by professional corruptionists and bosses, it might be a virtue to differ from it.

J. POUJADE.

PRESIDENT HARRISON AND SILVER.

The following is a letter written by Senator Henry M. Teller to a warm personal friend in Denver and originally published in "The Rocky Mountain News" of February 21, 1892:

UNITED STATES SENATE.
Feb. 11, 1892.

Dear Mr. —: Harrison has never done a thing for the West, and if any man knows of a reason why the people of Colorado should aid in securing his renomination I should like to have him tell what it is.

I do not believe he has ever said he was in favor of the coinage of the American silver product.

I do not believe he would sign such a bill if it passed.

I have consulted Allison, Morrill and Sherman and other opponents of free coinage and they say they will not support a bill for the free coinage of silver, and Allison and Sherman said they would rather support free coinage than the free coinage of the American product.

They said I might use their names in connection with this matter.

We could not hope to secure a single anti-free coinage man for the free coinage of the American product, unless it is Warren of Wyoming, and we would lose the votes of all the Southern silver men and, I think, all the silver men outside of the silver-producing State.

The talk of the free coinage of the American product is all bosh, and if we do not get free coinage of all silver we will get nothing.

The free coinage of silver would add to the values of Colorado's output of silver not less than $8,000,000 per year.

We can pass a free coinage bill through congress, but we know that it cannot become a law while Harrison is President.

Yet such is the cowardice of party zeal that men who fully recognize the great importance of the silver question abandon it rather than to antagonize the proposed nomination of a candidate that they think has the lead in the presidential race.

It cannot be because it is supposed that he is especially strong, for his most ardent supporters admit that he is not as strong as some other candidates.

This expression in his favor, in my opinion arises out of a desire to be with the winning party and partly, it is possible, because it is thought that it is not good policy to say anything against a possible candidate.

Yours, etc.,

H. M. TELLER.

Teller is now groveling in the dust at Harrison's foot stool, with the brand of traitor upon him. Men like Teller come high(?) but the Gold Bugs have to have them.

TO FOOL THE DUCKS.

The Curious Boat Owned by an Atlantic City Man.

Mr. Young of Atlantic City, N. J. has just completed a queer little hunting boat in Philadelphia.

A trial trip of the boat was made yesterday on the Delaware from Cooper's Point. The boat is metallic and modelled after the whaleback ships. It is eighteen feet long and five feet beam. It is claimed it would be almost impossible to capsize or sink it, owing to the air chambers fore and aft. An oil tank forward supplies fuel for one day. The boat can be submerged to the gunwales by filling all the water tanks and is lightened by means of a steam ejector.

An arrangement of mirrors in the bow lets the ducks see only their own reflection as the boat approaches and the fire can be opened on them through port holes. The boiler projects only fourteen inches above the deck and is hidden by the mirrors. This curious hunting boat was designed by W. J. Jennings of Philadelphia and is called a "sneak boat."—Exchange.

A boat after this fashion, as far as the mirrors are concerned, was tried on Washoe lake some years ago, but proved a failure, as the glare of the sun in the mirrors frightened the birds.

Silver Party Committee Meeting.

There will be a business meeting of the Central Committee this evening at 7:30 o'clock at Dr. Guinan's office. Every member is requested to attend for discussion of business of great importance.

By order of Executive Committee.

Target practice at the range today.

ALL SORTS.

Harry Flannery passed through to Reno last night.

Two stage loads of silver men and a brass band went up to Genoa last night to hear Stewart speak.

Dave Ryan drove down from Virginia last evening. He took Dr. Boyes along as a chaperone.

The weather at this writing is very uncertain, though the flags predict that it will be fair and cooler.

Frank Blethen the watchmaker is giving splendid satisfaction as a repairer of watches and fine jewelry.

The silver meeting at Dr. Guinan's office this evening, will be an important one, and should be well attended. See notice.

Stewart, the "fottografer," is doing the biggest business ever done in his line in this city. He turns out nothing but first class work.

Families desiring tomatoes, made by Mrs. Cornado, will please leave orders at Mrs. Pete Taylors restaurant or Mrs. Schofield's candy store.

The funeral of Amos Fish, who cut his throat at Pine Grove Wednesday, took place yesterday. He was well known in Carson and leaves an aged father and two married sisters. He was 34 years of age. It is said that religious excitement was the cause of his act.

Louis Burt, who accidentally took a dose of iodine recently, says if he had contemplated suicide he had a six shooter and some laudanum in his room, either of which he would have used, and denies that he had any intention of ending his life, as he registered in this county and wants a chance to vote the silver ticket.

Death of Joseph Roberts.
